“ I am sorry to see Mrs Crook passed. I worked a short period at her residency at Azalea. She was always a sweet lady and would ask me to play the piano when I was there at work .. yes I did and gladly ! I missed her after I left and several others. I love the Elderly and Children . God bless you all and I'm sorry for the loss

“ Aunt Susie, was a great Aunt. She was always helping her family in times of trouble. She loved her family and had a heart of gold. She will be missed by many. I'm sure my dad (Johnny) was greeting her with open arms, saying "What took you so long." The had a special brother and sister bond. God bless Bobby and Scott.
