“ Lee is how she was known to the family members. Never an idle bone in her body. Always up early preparing for the day by drinking that hot coffee and already starting dinner before the rest of us had even had breakfast. She was totally dedicated to her husband Jerry, her husband and all of her children and grandchildren. I met her 42 & 1/2 yrs ago while traveling to Indiana with a gospel singing group. Somehow we ended up staying in their home for about 3 wks while Jerry and his brother Gary worked on our bus. We had some good times...all the water bottle fights...while Lee stood behind the kitchen door with a gallon jug throwing it on Gary as he came thru the back door. She pierced my ears...hi-lighted my hair...bright orange...which turned green lol. She so very often had pain but she kept on going...never going to bed to rest...it just wasn't her. I had 1 triple date with Sarah, Joan and their guys and me and Gary. He left Indiana before we did but as I was leaving she slipped Gary's phone number back in AL and said call him when you get home. The rest is history...I called the very night we got back....he was over in 30 minutes...and proposed on the 2nd date....married within 3 months. Lee was just confident we were meant to be together. Our mother-in-law often compared us but she said there would never be another Lee for her. Lee was one of a kind. U may not have seen her openly worship God like Jerry or some of the many other church friends they had..but she worshipped God in her own way. She so often worshipped by serving and giving to others, unselfishly. She didn't have to raise her hands to worship God, which she did. She used her hands to help minister to other peoples needs whether cooking, cleaning, taking care of their sick bodies, or reaching out those helping hands to love u and assure u that God has this and will take care of it. Simple, hard working, devoting and strong woman of God. She will be greatly missed by all those that knew and loved her. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Sarah, Joan, Sherry, Dean and all of the grandchildren and great grandchildren and all of the Vaughn family members. You're home now Lee..no more back pain, no more breathing problems, you are HEALED forevermore. Our loss her is Heavens gain. No need to tell u to rest and put ur feet in the cool crystal water...ur just too busy running around talking with Jesus and seeing ALL those gone on before u. WOW! That was probably some more Homecoming celebration. Until I see u there....dance, sing, run, rejoice and find all of ur family and friends. Have the time of ur life Lee cause u are HOME FOREVER. Love u, Ann Beavers
