“ Hey Uncle Aaron, its been a while.I miss you a lot...its still raw by a ton.I have dedicated all of my art work to you...When I am having a hard time trying to get something to draw, I think of you. You are a constant record playing through me still...I miss and love you...I will never forget you...EVER! You were the best uncle a girl could ever ask for...I love you forever and always. I drew your favorite car and I will eventually get a tattoo of it in your memory too :) i love and miss you

“ I was Aaron's Adult Sunday School teacher for a short while, probably 2 years, but I will always remember how much of a student of the Bible Aaron was. I missed the funeral, didn't get the word in time, but I will never forget him. His address has changed, but we will meet again. Until then rest in peace. My heart goes out to Rose and the family.

“ I miss you so very much. Remember the time we went driving the gremlin. And Wendell asked that off the wall question about boys, you remember, the one that he should have asked your dad. Almost wrecked the car.
When baby had her puppies, we all held one in the back yard and took pictures.
When we would make snickerdoodles, and your dad would eat the whole pan.
When you played soccer, oooooo you would get so mad if the other team scored, you played hard.
So many memories. I love you so much. I miss you dearly.

“ Although I did not know Aaron personally I feel as though I did through his dad, Roger. Roger was very proud of Aaron, and he shared many tales of Aaron's adventures as he delivered those awesome cars throughout the United States. Words escape me, but I hope Aaron's entire family knows that many people were touched by Aaron's life. Probably many more lives were touched by him than you realize. May God bless you and may you find peace in the memories of your loved one. With deepest sympathy.

“ Aaron, I will very much miss you picking on me and being a total pest. Remember when I watched my own soaps along with Days of Our Lives for you when you went into the service?...back and forth and back and forth...watching and typing as fast as I could to keep you caught up when you were away?...I'll see if I can find those for Peggy, Wendell or Rose...Love you so much and thanks for bringing Rose to meet me. Believe it or not I enjoyed you stopping by to bug us when you came this way! Say HI to Paw and Maw and keep a watch on Dakota and The Tribe. Love You ~ Auntie Carol

“ We were waiting and waiting on Aaron at the St Judes Classic Golf Tournament. Then he went in this building so we waited again. When he came out he had bought gifts for Rose Brad Kayla Ryan Wendell and myself. That is just how Aaron was. Always thoughtful and giving of himself. He has helped us in so many ways. He was always there to lend a hand if needed and even when it wasn't needed. Lol. We love and miss you already Aaron. We will take care of your Rose.

GOD sent this wonderful woman into our lives when most needed. I lost my husband, Aaron's stepfather, 3 weeks after meeting her. I knew something good had happened to him, but did not know what. He was happy and just smiled all the time. Then there she was. There are no words to tell you how much I love her. Because of her my son that had been through hell became a better man, a happy man. He was taken from us for being the giving and helpful man he was. It was much to soon, he will never hold Rose's first grandchild, nor see his three grandchildren grow up. To see Kane his oldest grandson in tears because his grandpa was gone, broke my heart even more than it already was. But I know GOD will get this beautiful woman, Rose, and I through this together. My beautiful baby there is a big hole in my heart that will not be filled until we are together again in glory land. Love you so much MOM,

“ I only met Aaron once, so really didn't know him well. But I really liked him at our one evening together, and was so glad he went to the extra effort to bring my sister along on one of his trips and encouraged her to arrange an evening with us. He made her happy and that was what was important to me. RIP Aaron, you will be missed.
