“ How blessed I was to have Al as a friend even if it was a short time. God gave him to me just when I needed him. I just wish I could have had him longer. He was such a loving, Godly man who shared the Love of God just by being who God made him to be. He always put the other person before himself. Such a fine example for all of us to follow. Lord, help me to do just that! I love you Andra and pray for you all the time. I look forward to continuing the friendship that we have started. I am so thankful for the memories that I have with you and Al and will always treasure them. May the Lord bless you richly with comfort and strength and love and peace.
