“ I am going to miss you so much Amanda.. Growing up, you were always a second mom to me.. My best friend.. Everybody thought I was your kid for a reason. The bond between an aunt and niece is permanent, it can never be broken. I can't wait to see you again. I love you so much. May you rest and peace. You and pawpaw better save some mischief for me ☐ 🧡💖

“ I was 9 years old when this little dark haired, fair eyed baby girl was born. She was precious child and she, Cliff, my sister and I shared the love and adoration for our Poppaw & Mommaw Taylor. We knew our grandparents loved all of us so very much. There's a great reunion in Heaven happening now. Rest in The Savior's arms Amanda. I love you - Your cousin, Lynn (Taylor) Ayers
