“ I am the field service technician for the teller automation equipment at Listerhill CU. I didn't know Amy very well. In fact, I couldn't remember her name from time to time because I don't visit the Double Springs branch very much. But one thing I can say, if Amy was there when I came, it was a very enjoyable visit. She filled the branch with her love of life. She was always smiling, laughing and just cuttin' up. She always greeted the members as if she'd known them all her life. She was just a joy to be around. My condolences go to the family, as well as the women at the Double Springs branch. Amy will certainly be missed.

“ I don't have one bad memory of my friend Amy. I've known er for over 12 years through work, and always enjoyed being around her and getting to work with her. She was always funny, blunt to the point, and loved to keep something going. I always looked forward to walking in that front door and her greeting me. I sure am gonna miss her. I grieve for the girls she works with and more importantly the family that lost her. I spoke with her many times about her family. She loved y'all more than anything....y'all were her life. You didn't have to be around her much or long to know that. I will keep you in my prayers, she'd want that. I know she would also want y'all to lean on God and each other to get you through this horribly painful time.

“ Dear Jason and Family, I was deeply saddened by the passing of your dear wife and mother. Amy and I had become friends especially this year with Tyson and Fisher parting ways after the pre K year to different schools, we often talked about a lifelong friendship of our boys, because we had felt strongly that the Lord had brought these two wonderful personalities together. She and I celebrated together over Tyson and Fishers accomplishments, and milestones, and cried almost every time we saw one another over our boys separating at the end of the year. She was an exceptional woman, and I will miss her dearly. She was a sense of calm to me so many times in my sometimes chaotic life. I am so glad to have known her, and I am a better mother having taken some of her life experiences with her own children, and applying them to my life as a mother. I pray that the good Lord welcomed her with open arms. I will continuously pray for you and you family.
