

Ann Kent Wells

February 15, 1929 - April 26, 2017

Ann Elizabeth Kent Wells was called home by our Lord on Wednesday, April 26, 2017. She was born on February 15, 1929, to Paul and Louise Kent. She married Gordon Alan Wells on August 29, 1947. They enjoyed traveling around the country and working in their garden. They were happily married for 43 years until his death in 1990.

Having graduated from Deshler High School and Florence State University (UNA), she obtained Bachelor's, Master's, and Ed.S. Degrees. For 30 years, she was employed by the Colbert County School Board as a teacher and principal at Littleville Junior High School and ended her career at Colbert Heights Elementary School in 1994.

She was a member of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in Littleville for 60 years until her health prevented her from attending.

She was a fantastic cook and delighted in making meals for family and friends. Her pound cakes were legendary and were quickly devoured by whoever was lucky enough to receive one.

She was a devoted wife, loving mother, and doting grandmother and great-grandmother.

Visitation for Mrs. Wells will be Saturday, April 29, 2017, at Pinkard Funeral Home in Russellville from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. Services will follow at noon in the chapel with Bro. Bill Smith officiating. Burial will be in Colbert Memorial Gardens.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Gordon Alan Wells; son, Keith Gordon Wells; granddaughter, Jennifer Head; parents, Paul and Louise Kent; and siblings, Warren Kent, Gip Kent, and Polly Reynolds.

The family would like to thank Dr. Jack McLendon for his kindness and loving care of her and the staff of The Cottage Assisted Living in Russellville for attending to her needs.
