“ Sending my prayers to you all. I don't know if I will make it so I wanted to sign this just in case I wasn't back in time. Just want you all to know that I love you all so much and my heart breaks for y'all. I love this family and everytime we would all get together and make home made ice cream and play in the dark and eat pickles setting in a tree. This was the good old days. I miss this so much but most of all I will miss him so much but I know in my heart that he is home now with his dad and they are smiling down on y'all and telling you he is know longer in pain and for y'all to be happy for him. God bless you all.
