“ Still can't believe that you are no longer here with us in a physical form. You have helped change so many lives, mine and Tristan's included. You bent over backwards to help us raise money for Tristan and I will forever remember your kindness. It was an honor to meet you and know you for the short time I did. I know you are in a safer place holding your baby and will no longer feel hurt or pain. You are loved and missed by soo many and I know you now realize how many lives you touched by just being the kind, gentle hearted person you were. We will all meet again one day and until then, we love you and will always keep you in our hearts.
