“ My heart breaks for this tremendous loss to not only Rose and everyone in Aubrey’s wonderful family, but also to our community and those he’s impacted. I am one of many who have had the honor of calling Aubrey a friend, and I cherish the kindness and encouragement he always gave me. I will never forget the life lessons he taught me at my first job. One I carry with me to this day was his answer to why he gave away so much free stuff at the radio station: “Everyone deserves to feel special even if it’s just small stuff.”

Know that I mourn with you and and pray for your strength through this painful loss. Sending all my love.

“ Aubrey will be remembered for many things, including being the Class of 72's premier athlete. What I remember most about Aubrey may be his humility. Being a star jock never seemed to go to his head, and in my experience he seemed to treat everyone with the same degree of respect and decency - whether he was a kid in school, a radio "personality", or a businessman in an insurance office. He will be fondly missed by many.
