“ I met sweet Betty when Bro. Loyd became our pastor. She just took my heart immediately. There is not a lot of people you love as soon as you meet them, but Miss Betty was the exception. I loved cooking for her so much. I missed the past year getting to see her very much. She was almost bedfast and I got cancer. I still cooked and tried to share with the two of them when I could. I know heaven is sweeter than ever now, it's got another precious angel. Rest In Peace Miss Betty and enjoy being with Matthew. I love you! Your friend , Linda Rains
