“ Dear Mrs. Mann & Family,

I'm sorry to read of Bobby Joe's passing and my late condolences to the family with all of God's blessings.

It was my pleasure to have worked with Bobby Joe many years out at the Cedrum Mine in Townley, Alabama.

Even though it seems to have been in another life many years ago, I still think how blessed we are to be UMWA brothers and sisters and having had the privilege of working for the Drummond Coal Company. Cedrum Mine was the "Big Bad John" of surface mines in Alabama.

Bobby Joe will be missed but remembered in our hearts as so many others that have passed on to their eternal rest until the Great Day when we all shall rise calling on the name of our Lord.

It is my prayer that the Lord God keeps a hedge of protection around you all at all times.

Rest in peace my brother, we will meet again.

“ Even though we are far away, our hearts are with all of you at this sad time. God will take this sad experience and and make beauty out of it by giving all of us understanding and compassion for others. And, by teaching us to cherish our family, and friends, even more. As a teenager I was learning to drive on grand daddy's tractor. Uncle Bob was riding shotgun. Suddenly, I hit a ditch, which I didn't see due to the high weeds. The tractor began to turn over. Uncle Bob yelled JUMP! He jumped off. I just sat there like an idiot. Realizing I was frozen, uncle Bob jumped back onto the tractor, got it under control, and saved me. Or, there was the time, we were there on vacation. I had just gotten my driver's license; and I wanted to go into town. Uncle Bob threw me his car keys; told me his car was faster than maybe I was used to driving; and to be careful. But, mostly, I remember, the times when I was really down, and when life seemed terribly hard, he would call me to chat. His calls reminded me that someone cared, someone loved me, and things would get better. I have so many memories of him, and of being with him. I will miss him dearly. I know all of you too will miss him, and are sad now. The ones we love are never truly gone because our love for them last forever. All our Love, Dennis & Denise
