“ It’s the night before your funeral and it still seems so unreal. As I sit looking through pictures, I find joy in all the wonderful memories I have of you. You were and still are the best Grandma I could ever ask for. You were one of my very best friends. You taught me so much. I knew I could always come to you for anything. I’m already beyond lost without you here. A part of me has been sad ever since your dementia started to really get bad. I’m glad to know that you are no longer suffering, scared, & confused. I love and miss you so much. More than I could ever explain. Love your pretty girl, Terra

“ *Luther and family,
I'm sorry to read of your loved one's passing and may all find comfort in our Lord's word during this time of sadness.*

*In the words of Jesus found in John 11:23-26;
“Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha said to Him,
“I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”
Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?”
A wonderful promise from our Lord Jesus that we can believe and have confidence in.*

*God's continued blessings be upon you all BJ.

“ Jennifer, I can't really say I 'knew' your Mom. But I know she was a sweet lady because she didn't know me either but that didn't stop her from helping with our wedding cake 10 years ago 😊 That was such a blessing to us!!! I'm so very sorry for your loss. I understand the pain. You and the family are in my prayers and you know I love you! ❤️ (((((HUGS))))))

I'm so sorry to hear this! I used to see you all back when I worked for Modern Woodmen and did the suppers for our members, I meet a lot of wonderful people in the Haleyville area, and Brenda was one of those people and Luther also, they seemed very happy, and I know she will be missed by many. I've not worked in the last 5 years but I never forget the wonderful people I meet and made friends with, I miss all them folks, I will be praying for her husband and family, I lost my husband 7 years ago and I knew what you all are going through, but know God will comfort you all during this time and he never leaves Us!!
