

Brian Forney Burleson

August 16, 1965 - July 18, 2017

Brian F. Burleson, 51, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, July 18, 2017. Born in Haleyville, Alabama on August 16, 1965, Brian was the son of Don R. and Martha J. (Huckaba) Burleson. A life long resident, Brian was educated in local public schools, graduating high school in 1983. Shortly there after in 1985, he would marry the love of his life Ms. Lori Suzanne (Hatton) Burleson, spending the next 32 years of marriage together raising a son who would become the joy of his life.

For most of his professional life, Brian was employed as a salesman by the Albright Supply Company, having started his employment at the age of 15, until its closure in 1995. Brian would continue his sales career working with various community business including Tidwell Mfg. Furniture Supply and P.R. Hughes until his retirement due to disability.

A proud member of the Goldmine Church of Christ, he was also an active member of the Masonic Lodge 464.

An avid outdoorsman, Brian enjoyed fishing, camping with his mobile homes, and greatly enjoyed hunting, having spent many years raising and training coon hounds. Brian also enjoyed traveling and music, often going to music concerts with his wife. But most of all, Brian loved spending time with his many friends and family, especially his three grandsons who he was affectionately known as "Pawpaw Big". Brian will always be remembered by many as someone who would give the shirt right off his back to anyone in need and his larger than life presence will be sadly missed, but his memory will live on in all those who knew and loved him.

Brian is Survived by his wife Lori Suzanne (Hatton) Burlson, of Haleyville, a son, Justin B. Burlson and his wife Nicoll of Three Way, TN, a sister, Monica Pickard and her husband Jeremy of Haleyville, three grandsons, Bridger G., Beacon M., and Branch S. Burlseon all of Three Way, TN, several nieces and nephews and many adoring friends. Brian is preceded in death by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Don and Martha Burlson.

Memorial contributions may be made in Brian's name to the St. Jude's Children's Hospital and the Maywood Christian Camp.
