“ I have known Carl almost all my life. When he moved to Ashridge, he became like one of our own family. He was generous beyond belief and a friend to all who would let him be. We will always be grateful for his loving care of our mother and daddy, Belton and Eunice Bonds. They were able to live at home for many years because of his loving and faithful mission to see that they were cared for every day. He also watched over many other sick and shut-ins in the area. Carl was truly a good Samaritan and will be sadly missed by many who were shown God's love by his ministry on this earth.

“ Carl was like a brother to my sister and I. He looked in on our Mother and Dad and even after Dad died he checked on mother every day and let us know if there was a problem. I remember when he gave his life to Jesus we rejoiced together. He wanted to tell everyone that would listen. I know he is in Heaven now with his family and his pain is gone, hallelujah. He will be missed by his friends and family. His mission on earth is done.
