“ One of the best memories is when she would get the frogs out of the breezeway for me. She'd just shake her head and get the broom. I pray for comfort for your family.

“ Our hearts are heavy as we learned of Carol's passing. She and I became good friends several years ago when we realized that both of us had the same hobby of scrap booking. We had many good talks & laughs. I also realized that she loved her family so very much and was so proud of them all especially the grandchildren. Each book that she prepared was a labor of love. May God be with each of you and give you strength, courage, and peace during this sad time. I love you all and I'm here for you if I can help in any way. Love & prayers. 🙏❤️
