“ Dear Cox family,

I'm feeling a sad sense of lost in just learning that Faye ("Little Elvis") & Nell ("White Oak") have crossed over Jordan to life eternal with our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ.

They were two beautiful and wonderful ladies that brought sunshine into my life years ago, and I'm sure many others who were blessed to know them.

It was my blessings to have met and talked with them many years ago dating back to the early 70's.

I remember so many wonderful chats on the CB radio with both of them when I passed through each day heading down to the Drummond mine in Townley, AL.

I still remember the first time I met Faye, Nell and soon to be Stanley's wife JB even though it's been 40 years ago, funny how some things stick in a person's mind.

I'm sorry I lost touch with them even though I thought of them often over the years.

Watching the video brought tears to my eyes to see the love these beautiful ladies had for their husbands, family and children. This is the way it should be in every family.

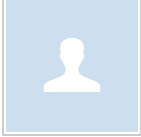

May the Lord God continue to bless each of you and keep a hedge of protection around you all at all times.

I pray I get to see Faye & Nell in heaven and give them another hug if it's the Lord's will.
