“ I have many great memories of uncle Cecil that I will always cherish. I remember when we shingled Grandma Winnie's roof and uncle Cecil and my dad Brice gave my Brother Rande and I a small glass of Coor's beer. Man Rande and I thought we were big stuff. I did pull uncle Cecil over once just for fun and to say hello when he was passing through El Dorado. A kinder man I have never known. I will think of you often. RIP

“ David and I were so sorry to hear about Cecil's passing! We will always remember our Hall family reunions and Cecil's great sense of humor. May you cherish the wonderful memories you shared with this beloved man and keep them close in your heart. Sending the family hugs, prayers and love during this difficult time.

Love,
Deb and David Hall
