

Chad Willis Taylor

April 19, 1971 - March 17, 2022

We honor and celebrate the life of Chad Willis Taylor of Muscle Shoals, Alabama and are deeply saddened this world has lost a champion of rehabilitation and new beginnings.

Chad, age 50, is survived by his mother, Susan Harrison (Keith); father, Glenn Taylor (Cindy/Tony); sister, Melanie Laird (John); niece, Stella-Rose Laird; uncle, Dale Taylor (Sharon); step- brother, Adam Harrison; and fiancé, Brandy Hughes,(Kyler and Briley). He was preceded in death by his grandparents Howard and Mildred Taylor of Russellville, Alabama and L.C. and Beulah Parker of Tuscumbia, Alabama.

Chad went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, March 17, 2022.

Chad's testimony was a gift for countless sufferers. He worked at Tri-County Outreach, a faithful servant and image bearer of Christ who valiantly inspired others with his witness and support. It is because of that we find comfort in knowing "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his Saints" Psalm 116:15. This world will miss his light but Heaven is more illuminated now.

“ SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS,

“ I met Chad at my lowest moment. A broken man searching for a better way. I didn't know how to believe in myself, and I don't know how to trust others. Chad taught me how to do that. He gave me something I've been looking for for a long time... Someone to trust, someone to look up to. He taught me so much, and I used his example as a model for how I live my life, to be of service to others, to have integrity, to reach out to help the next man no matter how tired I am. I love you Chad, and I thank God I was lucky enough to have had you in my life.

“ As a dear friend and co-worker I knew Chad intimately through my sponsorship role of over 14 years in the amazing program of Alcoholics Anonymous where he learned to be of maximum service to God and his fellows. Having had an awakening as a result of living by the spiritual principles that never fail he became a new man dedicated to those that were afflicted and a source of hope and strength for many men still suffering. It's a sad time for me but I'm reminded of the love for others and the zeal for everyday living that Chad shared with me for many years. I am richer for knowing him and am left with many "Chad" stories that are a powerful source of encouragement and hope for all. RIP my Bestie until we meet again

“ I have known Chad since I was 15 years old so 30 years. I'm so honored that God allowed Chad to be a part of my life. I am so saddened by his death. I will be praying for his family, Brandy and all of his friends. The world is a better place because of him

“ I met Chad a Mt. Zion. We were in the same Bible study class. For years, Chad would call me just to check on me. He didn't want anything and had no agenda except to be my friend.

He help countless people that suffered with substance disorders. He did so because he loved people like he loved God.

It's not a loss, because I know where Chad is at this moment. A loss only occurs when your never going to see it again. Well I know I will see Chad again. His belief in Jesus as his savior was strong.

It's not a loss
