“ I am sorry to hear bout Charity's passing. I only knew her little over 2 years. The last two month she had offered me a ride to town when if I need one. She was a great lady and it saddens my hear to hear this. We all know that she is in a better place and watching over her family and friends. She will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Andy Simmons##imported-end##

“ Charity was one of the strongest and sweetest women I have ever met. She never changed from the first day I met her 13 years ago. She was beautiful from the inside out and I was blessed just to know her. She had this amazing ability to love everyone and I admire that and want to be more like her. She was a mother who would go to the ends of the earth and back for those beautiful daughters. She respected her husband and loved him dearly. I could say so much about this precious lady, but she let her light shine everyday of her life and it will not be extinguished; it will live on in all who knew her or were touched by her. She has now heard God's voice saying "Well Done, Charity. My good and faithful servant!" Rest now, sweet friend, in the arms of Jesus. We will see you soon.##imported-begin##Maile Riddle##imported-end##
