“ A Child Of Mine (To All Parents)
Edgar Guest

*I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while he lives,
And mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call him back,
Take care of him for Me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
And should his stay be brief.
You'll have his lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love,
Nor think the labour vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take him home again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness,
We'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him,*

Much sooner than we've planned.

We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,

And try to understand.

Charlene will live on in those she loved and those who were blessed to have known her. Memories and picture are forever, and you gave us all a lot of each!! I'll always have our trip to Ft Campbell to take Chad back to base!! We had a blast and I am glad I had that time with you!! I love you and I will surely miss you for the rest of my days!! God bless you!!!

“ I was saddened when I heard the news about Charlene. We were friends in high school and the one thing that I remember most about her is that she always had a smile on her face and was happy. I have some great memories of Charlene as I'm sure her family does as well. I hadn't talked to Charlene in a number of years and we recently found each other through friends on facebook. The pictures that I saw on her page showed that even after all this time, she was still the same happy person I knew all those years ago. I hope and pray for peace for her family in this difficult time. Charlene is home with God now and she will always be a part of our lives. Rest in Peace my friend.
