GRAVESIDE SERVICE ONLY:

Wednesday June 7, 2023 at 12:00NOON at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Pell City, AL. with Dr. John Thweatt officiating.

She is survived by her son, Dewey Russell Eason, his wife Darlene; grandsons, Brian Gregg, Zachary R. Eason and Daniel C. Eason; 8 great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, great and great great nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Willaim Carey White and Freddy Farrow White; husband, Dewey Oliver Eason; daughter, Betty Lynn Gregg; siblings, Billie J. Treadwell, Maddline Foshee and William Russell White.

Charlene grew up on a farm near Hackneyville, AL., where she was proud to say she was driving a logging truck at the age of 13. She finished high school at Hackneyville High having played on the basketball team and being a cheerleader for the football team.

She proceeded to graduate from a Beauty School in Montgomery and being licensed she worked styling hair in Alexander City. She met a dashing young man, her future husband, Dewey at a tender age and waited for him to return from WWII at which time they married. Soon children were added to the household, Betty and Russell.

Charlene and Dewey were very involved in their church's and communities living long stretches of times in both Pell City and Albertville, AL. Dewey at times Sunday School Director and Charlene Woman Missionary Union Leader. Both were hard working in their love and dedication to their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Charlene was a loving daughter, sister, wife, mother and grandmother, and will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

“ I was a childhood friend of Betty Lynn Eason, daughter of Charlene. I spent many happy hours playing at various houses the family lived in Pell City, Alabama. I remember Mrs. Eason being a wonderful cook and making really good Divinity. She also took time one Easter morning to style my hair when I was about 10 or 11 before I went to church.
