“ My heart was broken this morning when I seen my dear friend Charles had passed away. He was a wonderful man. I spent about 10 months working with him at the cast house at Reynolds while I was an apprentice. He and his wife Elmo were so sweet to me. She would make tea cakes for him in the morning and he always shared. On my birthday she sent me some chili and a piece of cake. I learned so much while working with him. He was truly a wonderful person. I will truly cherish his memory always ! My prayers for all of his family during this time. We know he is now united with Elmo in Heaven so fair. Till we meet again my friend, thank you for your friendship and teaching me so much !!
