

Charles Douglas Shewbart

July 30, 1951 - February 19, 2024

Charles Douglas Shewbart was born in Franklin County on July 30, 1951 to Charles Jack and Marveline (Humphries) Shewbart. Doug stayed in Franklin County for the entirety of his life. He had many trades and professions throughout the years. He worked in logging, he was a fireman, paramedic, equipment operator, and also worked as a mechanics tool-room supervisor at G&G Steel, where he eventually retired after 23 years. Doug also proudly served his Country in the National Guard for 10 years.

Doug is preceded in death by grandparents, Clarence and Esther Shewbart, and Tommy and Vassie Humphries; In-Laws, Charles and Gloria Ann McKinney and brother-in-law, Michael Dyar.

He leaves many behind to cherish his memory, including Debbie, his wife of 45 years; his children, Jessica (Todd) Lindquist and Jada (Matt) Squyres;

Granddaughters are Hayley and Addison King, who were the joy of his life, and were always his partners in hunting, fishing, skinning a deer, riding 4-wheelers, and anything else "papa" came up with;

Siblings, Connie Pendegraph and John (Jamie) Shewbart; Brother-in-laws, John McKinney, and Randy McKinney (Cindy); Sister-in-law, Charlotte Dyar; as well as many nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers, John Shewbart, Todd Lindquist, Chris Smith, William Washington, Sam Presley, Ken Arnett, and Kurt Arnett.

On any given Saturday during football season, Doug could always be found watching the Alabama Crimson Tide play with his family. Roll Tide to all.....

“ I will never forget how nervous I was when I asked Doug if I could marry his daughter. I will always remember watching his face light up the night I proposed to Jessica. I will always remember my first deer season with the family. Doug and I was outside doing some things. He said there's a deer in the bottom field. He wanted to know how good a shot I was. Ended up getting two bucks. He was like well guess you can shoot. LOL. He was a Great friend, a Awesome Father-n-law, and one of the Best men I've ever known. He loved his family, the outdoors, fishing, and boating. He loved working with his hands and showing his granddaughters how to work on things. He was a true tinkerer. He loved noodling for catfish and man he loved his bass and crappie also. I cherished the time I had with him. I will never forget him. He will always be close in my heart. God's speed Doug. I love you.
