“ I can remember the 1st time I met Cherry. I was in Hood Grocery, and I think he was delivering something, I was very young so I'm not sure of that, but what I do remember is the BIG friendly smile on his face. I think he just loved everybody automatically, as God would have us be, but it really touched my heart, because not everybody was that way in those days. I am so sorry for your loss, but one day after while we can see him again. Then he will be happy, and healthy and still have that wonderful BIG smile! My love and hugs to all of you, and you are in my prayers.

So sorry for your loss! I just saw this today. He loved to tease me while riding the school bus to Double Springs. And I saw him once near KFC some years ago. After my parents retired and moved county road 15 in Haleyville. Across the woods from the Methodist Church in Ashridge. Lola & Elzie Ergle, I'm their daughter Laura. Cherry was always smiling.
