“ Sweet Christina. We had lost touch over the years but you are in so many of my childhood memories. With both of us having deaf siblings the same age, our families spent a lot of time together and Christina and I grew very close. We slept over at each others houses and hung out together all the time. I would say that my favorite memory with Christina was that she had came to church with me one Sunday night and during the altar call, she went down to the altar. I followed her and as we prayed together, she asked Jesus into her heart. That moment has always been so vivid in my mind and almost feels like it was just yesterday. When I found out Christina was sick, I immediately began praying for her healing. I begged God to work a miracle in her. But, God's plans aren't always ours and I've held so tight to the memory of that Sunday night at church.

My heart is so very broken for Christina's family. Melinda and Jenny, I am praying for peace and comfort during this tragic time. Emmitt and Kayleigh, we've never met but I could see, through the pictures Christina posted on Facebook, her tremendous love for both of you. I have no doubt that she was an amazing wife and mother. I am so incredibly sorry you are having to face life without her. There are no words that will make this easier or take the pain away but please know that there are people praying hard for all of you. The world definitely lost a very special person.
