“ To the Uptain Family, I hope you are still looking back and reading these. I am definitely thinking of and praying for you in the loss of Christopher.

If more had his heart, what a loving and better world it would be. Christopher and I worked together at Wellstar Community Hospice for the last two years. He was a consummate professional and had become a dear friend. He was so encouraging to me while I was pursuing my LCSW license and offered me the sweetest message and tips just days before the exam. He kept me accountable, and was one of the first people I contacted upon passing the exam in August of this year.

His humor was brilliant, and his laugh infectious. I am so thankful that God favored me to encounter him in what seems to be far too short of a time.

May God bless you, hold you, and comfort you during this time.

“ Christopher was a wonderful man to work with. I will always cherish his kindness and love he showed not only to his patients and their families, but to me as a new grad nurse in the intimidating world of home hospice. He was like a big brother to me in this field. I will never forget how we would cut up with each other every time we crossed paths. Christopher, thank you for your unconditional love and support as my friend. Until we meet again. Love, Jenny Hopkins

“ My deepest sympathies to the family of Christopher. He was a light everywhere he went. He always put a smile on my face when he came by. We all admired his work ethics and his devotion to his patients. His attention to details. I always wait for a last word or comment from him when reviewing his patients. He is a great loss on earth but such an asset in heaven.. Miss you!

“ I met Chris at the age of 6 years old. We were in the first grade. I loved him from the moment I met him. We continued through school together until we graduated high school. I spent many days with him...being silly, rolling yards, taking school field trips, swimming. He was my 8th grade Homecoming Escort. We lost face to face encounters over the years, but we never lost touch. I knew him as a beautiful, blonde haired, adorable little boy and I knew him as a remarkable, loving man. Chris, you will FOREVER be in my heart. I'll continue to treasure the friend you were to me as long as I walk this Earth. O'neal, Barbara and Angie, I love you all and I will continue to pray for the healing of your hearts.

“ Christopher always had an easy smile for those who needed one, he was generous in his sharing of his giftedness by reading the poem "When a Great Tree Falls" at our Annual Celebration of Life and Remembrance . I loved talking about spiritual /faith matters with Christopher, I considered him a brother and a friend. He was greatly loved by his Hospice co worker family as well as the families he served. I miss him.

“ I met Christopher when he attended the School of Social Work at The University of Alabama and began attending University Presbyterian Church. So many People, including me, were affected by his light that came from his big heart and gentle soul. We loved his smile and laugh (which we did often). We talked about life and social justice which brought him to becoming a social worker. Some of us were blessed to work with him at Tuscaloosa Dept of Human Resources. We are all blessed to know him as a friend. The world is darker without you, Christopher, but we have your light in our hearts.

“ Christopher was a light in my life. I moved to Tuscaloosa around the time he moved to Birmingham, but we met through University Presbyterian Church and hit it off right away. We would have lunch regularly when he was in town, and he was the one who suggested my dog Rumi's middle name (Lovejoy). Rumi and I stayed with him in Atlanta a few years ago and we had a wonderful time catching up. Rumi died last week and Christopher posted on my FB remembrance the night before he died. I am picturing the two of them playing on a grassy hill, and hope to see them both again someday. Christopher made my life better with his love and caring connections.

“ I worked with Christopher in home hospice. Christopher was such a caring social worker. We worked together on a particularly difficult case. Our patient had lost so much of her memory, but she loved to sing. Christopher played the song she was singing on his phone and her eyes lit up. He became my hero that day.

“ Christopher and I met 14 years ago when he was my manager at Restoration Hardware in Birmingham. Every week I would check the schedule and always hope that he was managing my shift because I loved working with him so much. A friendship began and we stayed in touch and made many memories. 5 months ago when I decided to move to Atlanta, Christopher was a huge support and offered advice and help in my new journey. When I was sick he called frequently for wellness checks. His life was about helping others, both at work and off the clock, he cared for the well being of others constantly. His relationship with God was a beautiful thing to witness and we often discussed his spiritual journey. I often asked and still ask what would Christopher do. His positive and generous spirit will forever be missed. Prayers to his family

*Christopher was a kind, gentle soul, an amazing friend who left way too soon.
I can still hear him laughing and singing the songs we sang together.
I can still feel his bear hugs every time we saw each other.
He was and will always be love, peace and light.
Now shining on us from heaven.
I'm lucky to have met him.
I love you, I miss you my friend.
I'll see you soon.
Sending my prayers to all his family and friends.*
