“ Granddaddy,
I love you so much, and I miss you so badly. I hope my boys end grow up to be half the man you were. You made my life so wonderful. I don't see how the world still spins without you here. Until we meet again, I will carry you in my heart, forever and always.

“ I remember I was with them at some of Gene's families house. All of us kids were playing outside & one of the little girls got choked on some hard candy. I think she was one of Gene's niece. He grabbed her up and got it to shoot out of her. He saved her life. He has left a whole lot of broken hearts but only cause he was so wonderful. Love each of you & hugging y'all in my heart!

“ I know I've told all of you about my "squash buddy". I loved Gene for always thinking of me & surprising me with squash, in the summer. He made my day, everytime. Yes, I love squash but the reason it made me so happy was that he did it, just to be the loving person he was; never asking or expecting for anything in return. Belgreen will never be the same without him. I miss him & always will.
