“ I remember the day I went out our back door and fell Clayton was out at his private place he had built in the back yard . .he saw me when I fell and he came to make sure I was alright . He said he saw me go down he just knew I was hurt bad. I was fine. When we had no car working he took me with him to vote. He knew I want to get my vote in. And one time we went to the health dep for the flu shot .he and Peggie have been there if we needed them .
