“ Cody and his Cousin Noah.

When Noah was little he couldn't pronounce Cody but would always call his Cousin Coyote instead. That never changed, he will always be Noah's Cousin Coyote.

“ Cody came to ask myself and LeeAnns Papa for our blessing to make her his wife. We were happy to say yes and daddy said just be good to her. Codys nsme for me was MaMa.Jan, and no one will ever take his place. That kiddo loved going out to eat and talking with daddy. We will forever miss you Cody, you made us proud.

“ I host a comedy Open mic in the Shoals and Cody contacted me about coming to it. He showed up and drove from Birmingham. He got up and made the whole room laugh. He really did a great job and told me how happy he was to see his home area having a comedy show. He really made an impact on the few of us he met. Very nice and hilarious guy. We will miss him!

“ Cody was my baby my mama’s boy. I have to many memories to share but I will share this one. The day he graduated from boot camp he got me and introduced me to his drill sergeants as his master drill sergeant LOL. His first phone call home from boot camp I answered the phone and he immediately said mama I feel like I’m at home. I said great I love you get back to work and hung up on him. We laughed about that later cause I explained to him why I did him that way. He was the best

“ Cody was one of the first people i met when i got to C Co. ill Corps. He welcomed me with welcome arms and high energy. We always had conversations about football and his old red truck, until he got that BMW. We were on the battalion flag football team together and he was so passionate about it. He helped me out when i had a question about anything at all and would set me straight if i needed it. When he got out of the Army he told me that i would be successful in my career because he saw the potential i had. I will always remember you laugh and how you roasted everyone for fun. I will miss you bud. See you on the other side. I love you bud. Thank you for all the advice and for setting me straight when it was needed.

“ You visited Fort Hood after getting out of the Army. Of course being your Army Mom I made a huge dinner for you. You sat at our small dining room table, the chair was loose, and BAM you fell on your butt. You somehow didnt drop your food or beer. We laughed forever it felt like. You are truly missed my son!

“ For the last few months, Cody frequently performed at the Grown Up Comedy Tuesday night open mic stand-up comedy show that I co-produce at Barrister's Tavern in Hoover, AL. He quickly became a crowd favorite, and made friends easily with other comics. He had a big and generous laugh. He had a good comic talent, and was rapidly developing his craft. We are all quite shocked by his sudden and way too young departure. He will be very missed. Our hearts go out to Kristen and to all who knew and loved Cody. Wishing you peace,
