I remember your wife and mother as always, the most beautiful lady in the room. I have not seen her since the 1980's from Captain Gilmer but I have thought of her often. My sincere condolences.

“ Damaris was a true woman of God and let her light shine wherever she was. She was the sister I never had and was always ready to give good advice and hugs whenever needed. I will miss sharing music together and our crafting fun. See you at the resurrection, Damaris. ❤️❤️
