“ For Will and Holly, my heart goes out to the both of you and to the rest of the family as well. Dan was always such a sweet man. If ask...what is the first thing that comes to your mind when you think of Dan and it is always a night at the kitchen table in their home, your Mom at the counter getting something ready for the oven and a party while Dan and I sat at the kitchen table...me watching Dan painstakingly under Judy's eye, rolling out puff pastry, filling with some spinach concoction of Judy's and rolling them up to bake. He was so intense on those little rolls. Isn't it funny what we remember? I loved them both and I am so sorry for your loss.

I have so many good memories of Dan...seeing him walk the halls at HHS keeping order in the halls, working with him in the sale of his mother's house, interacting with him at worship at 9th Avenue Church of Christ. He was such a quiet respectful man. We join Will and Holly and the family in missing him.
