“ I grew up next to my 2nd cousin Danny and his brother David and their little sister Carolyn. Looking back now, it was an honor to play with all of them. Danny taught me how to cast an open face reel so I could catch big bass. He took me fishing quiet a bit when I was at NW Jr College and he worked at Reynolds Metals Plant. We played guitar and made up country songs. He was an Auburn Man even though he never attended Auburn the Auburn Creed was what he had in his heart. I visited Danny a year or more ago and I promised to take him fishing soon and I'm sorry that I got busy and never made good on that promise. Danny your were a good man husband and father. I'm glad you grew up next to me and asked me to do things with you when I was just a kid! You were the cousin that was like a big brother to me. Put in a good word with God for me cause I am gonna need all the help I can get! Love you!
