“ My father was an awesome man of God. He never said negative things about anyone. He had so many Godly Characteristics I hope one day I grow to possess. I miss him so much and took him for granted often. The father and son arguments were petty. If I could go back he would be my best man in my wedding. My greatest regret. I love you and miss you pops!

“ He always had a smile and hug. But mostly he loved God, his family and friends. Love this family very much and praying for y'all. We can have peace knowing that he's already gone to his permanent dwelling place and we can meet him again. I know he and Allen are having a good time together now. Love and prayers.
