“ We spent years with Joe. Working pipeline Delilah and him and our family. Even when my daughter had to leave him we all still loved him so much. I still have a lot of pictures of him. I hope he finds the peace he seemed to be searching for. We love u Joe.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you, Kathy. Joseph was a class act, and I know that he's up there with the Good Lord waiting for his Momma to join him one day. You know I don't have kids, so I'll never know your pain - but I promise I'm here to listen if you ever need to talk or need a shoulder to cry on. I miss and love you and you'll always be in my heart.

Love and prayers,

“ I watch Joe grow up from an athletic boy into a young man. I always admired Joe for his honesty, work ethics and the love he had for his family. He was always so sweet and courteous to me. He was kind enough to play dominos and watch movies with his grandmother, mom and me several times when I would stay with Kathy. I know how much he was loved by his mom and grandmother and what a void his passing will leave in their lives. It is so hard for parents to bury their children, and my heart aches for Kathy. I love this family and pray that God will provide the comfort that they need. Shelby Kilpatrick
