“ Sending condolences to all the family. Take comfort in knowing she rejoicing in Heaven, singing in that Heavenly choir. This was her lifelong goal for herself and all she loved.

Being raised by my Uncle Doyle and Aunt Ann Shirey, I always considered Debbie my cousin. I spent many summer days and nights in Yampertown. We grew up working in the garden or what we called fields. We canned food for Winter for the families. She always got more excited about it than the rest of us. I remember her being so excited over seeing the corn had tassled. She had a love and excitement for all the good things in life. As kids she taught us younger girls about cooking, sewing and Jesus. As you all know, singing, playing piano and praising God were passions that began at a very very early age. We spent many evenings and all day Sundays at singing's around the area. I loved to hear her sing along with Donald, Rejeana and Cousin Margaret. I wouldn't take anything for these memories. I can see her smiling now as she always did. Debbie will be dearly missed by countless numbers of people that she touched in some way or another.
