“ We will never find another Debbie. She will be so missed. She was so young. Such a great person. She cared more about everyone else than herself. If the world were more like Debbie this world would be so much better. My heart hurts so bad right now. Love you Debbie. Thoughts & prayers are sent to family & friends.

“ My Mom loved wildlife. She taught me how to make bird feeders by putting peanut butter on pine cones from our backyard, along with birdseed stuck on it. We would hang them in a small tree right outside the dining room window to watch. Once, we found 3 homeless baby birds that fell from a nest and she made sure to bring them to the local vet. I will miss her so much, forever. Love you Mom.
