“ I am so sorry for the loss of your precious loved one. I taught Kaylie and Amanda at Winston County High School. I met Renee on parent/teacher day. Seemed as if I had known her a long time. I hate that I din't find out about this until yesterday, the day of the funeral, or I would have come to the viewing. You are in my prayers!##imported-begin##Rick White##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear about your great loss. Renee was one of the sweetest girls in our class. She always had that beautiful smile and a kind word. She will be so missed. Praying especially for her family and close friends, that you would experience the comfort only Jesus Himself can give at a time like this. May he be your peace in the days ahead.

With love,

“ My heart breaks for Renee's family. I was also a classmate of Renee's and have fond memories of spending the night with her when we were 10-years-old. I had only recently reconnected with her on Facebook and it was obvious how much she loved her family. I know each of you are hurting terribly right now and I wish there were words I could say to ease your pain. Renee will be missed.##imported-begin##Paula (White) Gallagher##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. No explanation, however reasonable, will make the pain of that loss simply vanish. Know first that God did not want them to die. God does not take delight even in the destruction of the wicked, let alone the death of anyone. (Compare 2 Peter 3:9.) Surely, he is deeply pained when someone dies. When God’s Kingdom rules without opposition over this earth, millions of people will be resurrected and welcomed back from the dead. Like the parents whose children Jesus resurrected back to life in the first century C.E., many then will be “beside themselves with great ecstasy.” (Mark 5:42; Luke 8:56; John 5:28, 29) And when all mankind is at last restored to the perfect state that Adam and Eve lost, then never again will anyone die!—Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##Renee##imported-end##
