

Doris Frankie Evans Lindsey

June 17, 1926 - August 23, 2012

Doris Frankie Evans Lindsey, age 86, Hackleburg, Alabama passed August 23, 2012. She was born June 17, 1926 in Marion Co. to the late Floyd Martin Evans and Maud Walker Evans. She graduated from Hackleburg High School, Florence State Teachers College and Peabody College in Nashville. She taught at Phillips High School in Bear Creek, Phil Campbell High School, Hackleburg High School, Winfield High School, Auburn University and North Alabama State Junior College during her 33 year teaching career. She was a member of Hackleburg United Methodist Church where she held a number of offices. Her funeral will held on Sunday August 26, 2012 at 3:00 PM at Hackleburg United Methodist Church, with her visitation 1 hour before the service, Rev. Bobby Aderholt and Dr. Mike Hendon officiating, burial to follow at Cedar Tree Cemetery. She was preceded in death by her parents; husbands, Russell Lawrence and Charles Lindsey; two brothers, Charles Evans and Raymond Evans; two sisters, Kate Randolph and Earlene Young. She is survived by her sister, Betty Cantrell of Sherman, Tx. and number of nieces and nephews. Her pallbearers will be Thomas Cantrell, Charles Evans, Chad Cole, Kevin Fowler, Vernon Britnell and Jeff Baccus.

Previous Events

Visitation

AUG 26. 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM (CT)

Hackleburg United Methodist Church
Hackleburg, AL

Service

AUG 26. 3:00 PM (CT)

Hackleburg United Methodist Church
Hackleburg, AL

Tribute Wall

“ Doris was a shining point in my early youth..always seeing her at the Methodist Church in Hackleburg.. She loved all the young people and made friends easily.. we admired and loved her in return. Back in the day when teachers were loved like family! And Doris was 'family to all'...God blessed us by having Doris in our lives...Condolences to the family, Lynda S. Williams, Florence, Al.##imported-begin##Lynda Summers Williams##imported-end##

---

August 27, 2012 at 10:56 PM