“ Sheron, Rena and family:
I have not known you long but I know you are a strong family that will be there for one another in this time of need. You will always have those memories that shall never fade. Remember that he is in a better resting place where he feels no pain and has regained his strength. God has provided a special place for him. If anyone needs anything please let me know. I am thinking of you and God bless.##imported-begin##Crystal Valles##imported-end##
