“ Elizabeth was a strong and special Mother-In-Law. She went through many hindrances and disappointments that she overcame because of that strength. I am thankful that she was she was such an influence to her son, Felton, for that strength that she passed on to the family. Sorry for the loss of her example, but thankfully we have the memories.

So sorry for the loss of a lifetime friend sis Lizzy Pratt. I grew up around her children and always liked her and she was always kind to me so I guess she liked me too. Lol 😊

So sorry I will be out of town during this funeral but I send my prayers 🙏 and support to her remaining children as I know them Randy and Earnie... Helen and grandchildren Mickie Cherry Annete Tammy and all their Siblings.

I know sis Lizzy is now united again with her husband...my parents and many more friends for the rest and peace she deserved. Gone from this life but always remembered by those who Loved her. God bless her family 😍
