“ Its been a long time since I last saw your mom, but I can still hear her laugh and see her smile. The Lord called a lovely lady home to be with Him. Heaven's gain is our loss. Remember the happy times we all had singing together. We will do again someday. May God's love surround you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sandra Wilson Carter##imported-end##

“ Kathy,
I don't believe that we have ever met, but I knew your Mom from many years ago. We were in school together at Pebble. Some time later your Mom bought our homeplace in the Pebble community. I am saddened by the fact that I have not kept up all these years and now to learn of her untimely passing. Only God knows why these things happen and we just have to accept his plan even if it hurts so much. I know that she will be missed.

“ Kathy, my thoughts and prayers are with you during this terrible tragedy. Daddy was a mechanic in the factory where your mom worked and he always thought so much of her. I remember when she came to work with us for a little while in my Dad's business and I got a chance to know her then. I'm sure she never knew the influence she had on my thinking about some things. She will be greatly missed in our community.##imported-begin##Reanee Collier Knighten##imported-end##

“ My prayers for the family of Ms Wallace. She was my mothers supervisor at the old textile mill many years ago. I was traveling down 93 around 6am when my heart grew heavy. I saw the firemen battling the blaze and I remembered my dear friend. Many times I saw her in the yard or working in her garden, she always had on a bonnet. Although I didn't know her personally she expressed her kindness with a gentle wave or hand gesture every time I passed her house. May you find comfort in her sweet memories.###imported-begin##Ronda Ingle###imported-end##

“ Kathy,

I was very sad to hear about Ella. She and Elmer held a special place in my heart and I am thankful that I had the opportunity to attend church with them at Liberty Grove. I am earnestly praying that the Lord will give you and your family the love, grace and strength necessary to help through this trying time.
