“ What Ethelene meant to this Frazier sibling. Aunt Ethelene had such energy, love, friendship and a infectious laugh to share. She was on the go, between the shop, Randy, Janie and the grandkids. She was my Mom’s dear friend and made all us kids feel her love. She never saw race. She saw all Gods children. Over the years dropping in on her in Haleyville she never changed. God speed Ethelene. You meant so much to us Frazier’s.

“ She was like a second mother to me. For 18 years I worked with Randy Green, her son, on World Bible School mission efforts she never complained about the time we spent each day usually five to six days a week and she always fixed us super. She was a loving and giving Christian lady. God bless and comfort her family giving them the peace that her reward is Paradise and Heaven.
