“ Such a wonderful sweet person!! I can remember being over on their farm as a child with her sister Jessie Mae and Otho and my folks picking blackberries and they were growing sugar cane! I thought that was so cool, not a usual Bama crop. She will be missed, prayers for the family.

“ We will forever miss Eunice. These aunts loved us so much and we will forever miss them. I can't help but think what a reunion this was with all the sisters and Mamaw and Papaw when she made it home. Our prayers are with you all.

“ Danny, Steve, Larry and Mark. We are so sorry for the loss of your mother. We loved her so much. She was so much like a second mother to me and Edith. Whenever she called me, I can still hear her saying Jim how are you feeling. That nickname that she called me will forever stay in my heart. We love you cousins so much. May God send comfort and peace to each of you. Jolene and Harold.
