

Evelyn Rae Reeves

March 9, 1929 - July 14, 2019

Evelyn Rae McCord Reeves joined the Lord on July 14, 2019. She was born in Oxley, Missouri to Raymond and Ruby McCord on March 9, 1929, the daughter of a cotton farmer and owner of a cotton gin. In addition to her parents and husband Fred Reeves, she is preceded in death by two sisters, Imogene (Jack) Longgear and Geneva (Bill) Chapman. Moving to Russellville, Alabama in 1965, Evelyn spent 16 years with Farm Bureau before she and Fred owned and operated Big Star in Russellville and later Piggy Wiggly in Hackleburg.

An active member of Calvary Baptist Church, she thoroughly enjoyed activities with the senior group there. She also served her community through efforts with Safe Place, the Red Cross, Habitat for Humanity, and the Faith Mission. In addition, she ventured to countries like France, Spain, Italy, and Morocco, enjoying the beautiful countryside, especially when accompanied by family members. She will be remembered for telling stories from younger days at family gatherings and reunions. Laughter always followed as she joked about family and friends. Each joke would be followed by a light-hearted laugh, grabbing the attention of any who missed it. A strong individual, she was a beautiful narrator with a loving heart extended to those she knew well. She had a love for learning and a special place in her heart for children. Mrs. Reeves is survived by sisters: Caroline Shelton and Gloria Bumpus; sons: Mike (Pat) Reeves and Brad (Rebecca) Reeves; four grandchildren: Tonya Jackson, David (Amy) Reeves, Patrick (Amy) Reeves, and John
