She was a sweet cousin to me she helped take care of me when I was a small child after my mother died just like my sister. She was a good and kind person.I loved her. A good Christian lady.

“ Fayrene was my youngest sister. I have beautiful memories of how we played together as little girls, sometimes spending all day building playhouses together out in the edge of the woods. We always slept together until I got married. I remember when we had the mumps how she would eat one pea at a time because it was painful for her to open her mouth. As adults, we raised our children together and talked on the phone almost every day. After I was alone, I spent every Thanksgiving and Christmas with Fayrene and her family. I was so blessed to be able to spend all day this past Christmas with her. I am so sad that she has died, but I have beautiful memories of her that I will treasure. She and I became Christians the same night and were baptized together in cold, stoney, Turkey Creek. I know I will see her again someday. Until that time, I will miss her terribly. Vadean Williams
