

George William Porter Jr

October 28, 1927 - August 5, 2018

George William Porter, Jr. , age 90, passed away Sunday, August 5, 2018 at his home in Haleyville. He served in the United States Marines during World War II, was the former owner of Dixie Woodworking, and was a member of First United Methodist Church, Haleyville.

Visitation is Friday, August 10, 2018 from 1:30 - 2:00 p.m. at First United Methodist Church-Haleyville, with the service following at 2:00 p.m. at the church. Bo Knight will deliver the eulogy and Mitch Nethery to officiate Burial in Winston Memorial Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers are: Brett Whiteside, Bobby Masdon, Brett Knight, Robert Blake, Clyde Putman and Todd Barton.

He is survived by his children, Cindy (John) Morris and Craig (Carolyn) Porter; grandchildren, Jennifer, Joshua, Lily, Audrey and Owen; great grandchildren, Jeremiah and Eric.

He was preceded in death by his parents, George and Lillian Porter, Sr., and his wife, Edna Frederick Porter.

Tribute Wall

SS

“ When I think of Uncle George I remember being a little girl and sitting on his knee. He always had time to sit in front of the fireplace at Grandma and Pops and talk to me. Later he would call me when he was close to Asheville and he would take me to dinner. He had such a soft gentle voice I found comforting. I will miss him. ”

Sherrill L Smedley - August 10, 2018 at 12:11 AM