“ Gip was a good true friend. He never beat me out of a dime and I don't think I ever beat him out of one or he would have let me know. He will be truly missed

“ Our hearts are saddened by Gip's passing. He always had a kind word to say and he and Tony would get to the church about the same time for a good chat. Our prayers are with you, Kilpatrick family.

I have not lived in H,ville for over 40 years but I knew Gip and his brother Bill even as a young child working in Gaskin's market on Main. Gip and my brother Jonathan tailgated together at Auburn games before anyone thought of bringing an RV to a game. Good man and a part of H,ville for a long time. Rest in heavenly peace.
