“ She was a favorite aunt of mine. She had the most wonderful laugh. She and my dad, Boyd, loved to tease each other. She wrote wonderful letters full of family stories. She lived the longest of anyone in our family.

“ I remember going to visit aunt Gladys from Cleveland Ohio. She didn't know we were coming but she insisted we stay for dinner. I watched in amazement as she chased down a chicken, rung its neck and dunked it in boiling water, picked its feathers and proceeded to make us chicken and dumplings. She was an excelleny cook
