“ Precious friend and family member of my parents, Wiley and Mary Sumerel Richardson.
She and A.C. were some of our favorites to visit with.
I was concerned when my parents retired and moved to Belgreen to be near their parents and would have no social life to speak of. I didn't have to worry about them with A.C. and Grace as their pals. They played cards and dominoes and had a wonderful time. I would call to cheer them up or so I thought but they would be having a ball with A.C. and Grace. Now they are all in heaven and enjoying eternity with our Lord. I know they are all rejoicing to be together once again.
